Analysis Skills

Q1) Read the following passage and answer by choosing the right answer.

Indian culture has deep-rooted family values-parents make enormous sacrifices for their children, children consider it their duty to take care of aged parents. Unfortunately our attitude to the community is very different. We keep our homes spotlessly clean, when we go out we do not think twice before littering. We see serious problems around us but behave as if they are some one else's responsibility.

In the West, individuals understand that they have to be responsible to their community. They solve societal problems proactively. This is something we should learn. Successful societies are those that harmoniously combine loyalty to the family and loyalty to the community.
