Once, there was a farmer who was a very disagreeable man. Everyone who knew him disliked him. He was sure to make the most of whatever went wrong about him; and the poor offender always met with severe punishment. There was not a boy in all the neighbourhood who did not feel uncomfortable as he passed his gate; and the poor dog that barked at his guese, or the neighbour's rooster that crowed on his wall, was speedily visited either with the lash of his whip, or the shot from his gun The very cat knew his footsleps And slunk away from him in terror. He was a complete past, as much so to himself as to those about him. Every day brought him some fresh trouble, and found him in continual "hot water"; indeed, his very life was made up of broils.

After a time, Good farmer Green came to live near him; and as you may suppose, he was soon told the character of his not over-pleasant neighbour. 'well' said he 'if he treats me badly, I'll very soon kill him.'
