Do you ever think of the rivers of India? They are our greatest natural assets. Aren't there hundreds of them watering our land making it green and fertile? Aren't they natural highways linking the towns with the villages? And isn't there great beauty in them? There is such variety too. There are navigable rivers, especially in Bengal and Kerala. They are raging torrents which leap from the mountains down to the deep gorges. There are huge rivers which sometimes burst their banks and flood the countryside. And in tribute to their strength and beauty, we have always held them scared. To love India is to love her rivers, big and small.

3. (a) Discuss the role of soft skills in developing the personality.
